The Honorable George Bush
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

On behalf of the officers and members of the National Newspaper Association, particularly those members who attended our recently successful Government Affairs Conference, I want to thank you for your personal participation. Your discussion of the problems which Americans and their government face together this year will help improve the knowledge of all concerned.

Attendance at this year's Conference broke all previous records. All who attended were highly complimentary of those who addressed the Conference, and appreciated the time they took to inform and discuss.

Again, many thanks for participating and helping to make the 1976 Conference a memorable success. Please let us know if we can be of help to you at any time.

Sincerely,

T. A. Serrill
